

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GLASER & ASSOCIATES, INC. LAUNCHES BREAKTHROUGH COMMUNICATION 2.0: Mastering Human Relationship Dynamics

Drs. Susan and Peter Glaser release online platform for their international award-winning communication learning system: How to create a culture of trust.

EUGENE, Or. Aug 8, 2014 - Glaser & Associates Inc. is launching the first of its kind video-based online communication learning system. Breakthrough Communication 2.0 provides communication mastery in breakthrough conflict, hardwiring teamwork, and persuasion.

This data driven program teaches skills for raising delicate issues, responding to conflict, turning adversaries into thought-partners, and making meetings creative, productive, and short. Skills can be reviewed on demand before life's defining conversations. This evidence-based multimedia learning system has produced immediate impact and measurable, lasting results.

Over their 40 years of published award-winning research, university teaching, and international consulting, the Glasers have presented for over 800,000 people. Amid growing demand for an ongoing way to hardwire communication skills, the Glasers broke into the digital space last year with a beta release of Breakthrough Communication 2.0 for existing clients. In Sep 2014 it's being publically released.

Breakthrough Communication 2.0 gives online subscribers control over the time, place and pace of their learning. Reinforcement quizzes ensure best practices rather than bad habits. The option of before/after surveys provides measurable evidence of individual skill development.

To help reinforce best practices, the Glasers connect with participants through live video coaching and in discussions on their online Community of Practice forum. Individual certifications and training of internal coaches within organizations are also available through the online program.
